

The 5Rs –

A ready child is curious and self-motivated.

The knowledge, skills and attitudes for life long learning.

They :-

- Ask questions
- Researches
- Chooses their own learning and methodology
- Take sensible risks
- Have a go (Golden rule)
- Like being challenged
- Explore new ideas and interests

A resilient child is very persistent and never gives up.

They:-

- Keep going
- Learn under stress - Perseverance
- Absorb all ideas and information
- Manage their feelings
- Do not become distracted
- Notice everything

A responsible child takes ownership of his own learning and works well with others.

They:-

- Understand how he learns
- Understand how others learn
- Like to collaborate – being in a team
- Are a good role model
- Plan and set their own goals

A resourceful child uses what they find and scouts around for more.

They:-

- Ask questions
- Imagine
- Make links
- Find and give Reasons
- Use their own learning approaches and environment, and those of others.
- Find and use information

A reflective child thinks about what they have done and how they could make it even better.

They:-

- Plan
- Revise by stopping and reflecting
- Experiment with learning
- Use different memory skills
- Make connections
- Understand their own learning
- Practise

